

Give more to The Andrew Raven Trust – without it costing you a penny. Gift Aid allows charities to reclaim the tax you have already paid on the donations you make. It means that any donations you make to us under Gift Aid will be worth almost a third more, at no cost to you.

Please notify The Andrew Raven Trust if you:

1. Want to cancel this declaration.
2. Change your name or home address.
3. No longer pay sufficient tax on your income and/or capital gains.

Tax claimed by the charity

- The charity will reclaim 28p of tax on every £1 you gave up to 5 April 2010.
- The charity will reclaim 25p of tax on every £1 you give on or after 6 April 2010.
- The Government will pay to the charity an additional 3p on every £1 you give between 6 April 2010 and 5 April 2013. This transitional relief for the charity does not affect your personal tax position.

If you pay income tax at the higher rate, you must include all your Gift Aid donations on your Self Assessment tax return if you want to receive the additional tax relief due to you.

“Andrew was an energetic and passionate man, with a degree of pragmatism which could translate ideals into practical outcomes.”

Dr Nigel Leask

Andrew Raven, the inspirational environmentalist and land manager, died tragically young in 2005. For many years Andrew had worked tirelessly to bring about social, environmental and economic change in rural Scotland.

The Andrew Raven Trust was conceived as a way of continuing that work, in a way that was in tune with his own vital and inspiring example, taking his central concern with the policies and practicalities of land use, particularly in Scotland, and considering them in the light of the great modern challenge of global warming.

You can support The Andrew Raven Trust today and help us shape the future for the next generation. For many of us, that is an eye-opening challenge. The task now is to continue to keep those eyes looking clearly ahead.
